

Doris plays it straight for big day

MOST know McLeod's Daughters star Doris Younane for her spectacular crowning glory – but it wasn't always the case.

"I shaved my head in Year 10," Doris laughs.

"I was rebellious – my parents freaked right out."

After shaving her head, she found her naturally wavy hair went the "freakish curly" it is today (her description). A good thing though as her hubby, Billy Papakostantis, loves it.

Doris, however, plans to wear her famed follicles dead-straight to the McLeod's wrap party on June 3.

McLeod's hair and make-up supervisor Suzie Warhust, above, will be put to the test with her trusty GHD styling iron.

Doris and Suzie will also be keeping their manes in check at the massive GHD soiree being thrown at Clip Joint North Adelaide to launch the brand's new range of hair products on May 31.
